

CANADA'S FIRST

"Reading aloud allows families to travel together
through story,
igniting the passion that marks a life-long reader"
- Dr. Christianne
Hayward

World Read Aloud Day is about taking action to show the world that the right to read and write belongs to all people.

at

CHRISTIANNE'S LYCEUM OF LITERATURE AND ART

Put on your pyjamas and join us for the best bedtime stories ever, as we celebrate World Read Aloud Day with ten local writers reading from their work.

Day ----- Wednesday March 5th, 2014

Time ----- 6:30pm - 8:30pm

Ages ----- All ages (who doesn't love a good story?)

Cost ----- Free (light refreshments provided)

Place ----- Christianne's Lyceum: 3696 West 8th Ave, Vancouver

Readings from CWILL BC authors

- Loir Sherritt- Fleming
- Lee Edward Fodi
- Heather Kellerhals
- Tiffany Stone
- Silvana Goldemberg
- Kallie George
- Suzanne de Montigny
- Darlene Foster
- Max Tell
- Irene Watts

For a complete schedule visit www.christiannehayward.com

